RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 282 pages. LC Number: KF27 . O9425 2010d OCLC Number: (OCOLC)703599442 Excerpt: . . . 11 of the year where we would go for 3 days with no postal delivery services, and there are many unintended consequences where credit card bills and medicine that may be delivered through the mail and those types of things that I think they need to be more thoroughly explained. Again, I would hope that we would explore a blend where we give you some flexibility to find that Saturday in August nobody is going to miss it so you can trim costs. The other thing, Mr. Chairman, that I hope we look at is I still believe that this country lacks in energy policy. If you look at the fuel prices, in January 2009 they were less than 2 a gallon. Now, at least in Utah, I am paying more than 3 a gallon. This country does not have an energy policy, and when we have rising energy costs one of the consequences is a tremendous expense to the Postal Service in the delivery of its goods and services. Obviously, the biggest thing out there that we have to talk about that is difficult is labor. When you have 80 percent of your expenses tied up in the labor pool, there are going to have to be some very difficult decisions and discussions. I know we have some tough labor negotiations that are coming up. We need to talk about right-sizing the Postal Service and dealing with that. As Congressman Issa talked about, it would be better, best if we could make some of the transition in the astronomical growth we have in the other departments and agencies and being able to...
