Cedar Hill Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Garnet Rocks. All her colorful best buds (a whacko assortment of Florida misfits, malingeringers and well-placed big shots) agree. As do her thousands of fans and friends (and understudies, admirers stalkers). In less than a year she has more people interested in what she is going to do next than most people have over a lifetime. Why? (you may well ask) Well, we're not sure, exactly, but this may have something to do with it: She's a cutie pie small town Florida journalist out to save the world and right all wrongs, defend the helpless, alleviate suffering wherever she encounters it, because, well, it's The Right Thing To Do. Plus she's really smart, and we mean really-really-really smart. But in a way, sometimes, uh, (as some of her previous boyfriends said) too smart for her own good. What did they know? She dumped them anyway. A long time ago. It's all about Chester Dare now, the county public defender with whom she's had a tortured love-you-forever relationship since the first time they laid eyes on each other. And besides doing the right thing (damn the torpedoes!)? This actually has a lot of advantages. For instance, (in this instance Garnet, of course) it's a license and justification to: 1) ignore the rules, 2) drive like a maniac, 3) leap before you look, 4) take extraordinary measures, 5) give and go to parties, 6) ask impertinent in-your-face Member of the Press questions to Florida Big Toes [stick her nose in everything, learn heaps of interesting new stuff] 7) stir up trouble [and sit back with her BFFs, mojitos in hand, on...
