Excerpt: . the neighborhood. In the comments that the boys were making all round me the other girls were all very well, but Teacher was easily the favorite. She s a good teacher, I heard one declare, hoarsely fervent. She s did well by Number Six. I could make out every word them children spoke --a fact that really seemed to give him cause for satisfaction. The night wore on with drill after drill, song after song, recitation after recitation. Despite my fatigue, I was interested. As I watched the audience something took me by the throat. It was somehow so pathetic. Those heavy men, those work-worn women were not interested because their children were being shown off. No indeed. They liked the performance because it was just at their level, and that fact threw a searchlight on the bare monotony of their lives. We...
