This was not the case formerly when the country was more thinly populated and the cattle fewer in number, as a large extent of country remained ungrazed, and the seed was supplied from thence by means of the high winds that prevail here. This grass is still to be found in the Bikaner territory, where much of the land is waste, but grazing there is attended with many drawbacks in the shape of heavy taxation and insecurity of property. 158. Barilla or sajji was abundantly produced in the waste R. about Ubohar, but this has also disappeared since the colonization has commenced, though not so entirely as the dhaman grass, of which there i3 hardly any to be found. 159. The Karil bush or wild caper, with Jand and Jail, form the...
