Although there has been much written, and many volumes are now before the public on the subject, yet there is still, upon this most expressive and important ordinance, a vast amount of ignorance in the Christian church. It is therefore clearly the duty of the Baptists, in the exercise of Christian charity, to give their erring brethren line upon line, and precept upon precept, and exhort them to make straight paths for their feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way. Your reasoning upon the subject from the usus loquend! of the terms employed in the ordinance of baptism, is irrefragable. - Infant sprinkling is most unquestionably the very foundation and pillar of Popery, designed to be the great link to connect church and state, in order to form a national religion, and so to unite the kingdom of light with the kingdom of darkness, as to form a misty twilight, in the dimness of which, things doubtful and anti-scriptural should appear to be confirmation strong as proofs of holy writ. I believe it must and will appear to every candid reader of your excellent Manuel, that...
