

All Sins Forgiven: Poems for My Parents (Paperback)

By Charles Coe

Leapfrog Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 168 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Coe writes about his parents with warmth, insight, and grace . . . with celebration as well as regret. A collection that captures the tenderness and intimacy within the black family. His words construct a path from the innocence of childhood into the winter of aging. His book will outlive much of the poetry being written today. --E. Ethelbert MillerNo relationship is more personal, yet universal, than that of parent and child. These richly detailed poems connect readers with their own experiences in that most fundamental of relationships, and are poignant reminders that the lives of those closest to us sometimes offer the deepest mysteries. domesticity pampered little girl no crystal ball to warn you of dirty laundry mountains. From How My Father Learned to Cook : Because of the tomatoes in a neighbor s garden, my father learned to cook. Because of late summer home-grown Indiana tomatoes, drooping on the vine my father learned to cook. Imagine him at twelve leaning over the fence of the neighbor s garden curious but shy, and the neighbor pointing to the open gate....
