Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Life and Writings of De Witt Clinton Charles A. Clinton, Esq.: My Dear Sir - I now present you with this volume of your father s writings, containing, also, a brief Memoir of him, and a short sketch of the Family of Clinton. I regret that I have not the time and the talent to prepare such a life of De Witt Clinton as is required, and which is due to his great abilities and distinguished public services. There are many reasons why such a work would be to me a labor of love. During the long public careers of George Clinton and of De Witt Clinton, my grandfather and my father were their unwavering personal and political friends. The active agency of Gov. George Clinton was greatly instrumental in procuring the release of my grandmother and her children from Indian captivity during the war of the revolution. It is a source of gratification to me, that we, of the third generation, have for many years been on terms of personal friendship. The lives of George and De Witt Clinton are yet to be written. The hand of time has already removed much of the rugged surface formed by the party politics of their day. The foundation is ready, and the materials are at hand, and the pen of the faithful and impartial biographer will yet rear noble monuments to their memory.
